Ms. Arlene O'Neill

Dear Ms. O'Neill:

Pursuant to section 6.1 of the Ministry of Government Services Act, I am pleased to reappoint you as a member of the Business Law Advisory Council ("Advisory Council"). Your reappointment to serve at the Minister's pleasure will begin August 16, 2017 and end no later than December 10, 2018.

As a government appointee, you are required to avoid any real or perceived conflict of interest. Accordingly, you cannot use or disclose any information obtained as a result of your appointment for any purpose unrelated to your work on the Advisory Council. In addition, you cannot promote solutions or strategies that would directly or indirectly benefit your employer and/or business interests. In the event any situation in which your personal or professional interests, relationships or obligations could conflict with your duties as a member of the Advisory Council, you must declare it to my office at your earliest opportunity.

Thank you for your dedicated service to the Advisory Council. I am confident that you will continue to make a significant contribution to the success of the Advisory Council and in particular, to the development of consensus recommendations on priority changes to Ontario's business law framework.

Please accept my best wishes.

Sincerely,
