

Bay Adelaide Centre – East Tower
22 Adelaide Street West, Suite 3600
Toronto, Ontario M5H 4E3
T 416.865.6600 F 416.865.6636 www.grllp.com

Noah Bonis Charancle

Associate

T 416.865.6661

F 416.865.6636

E nbonischarancle@grllp.com

Expertise

Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Transportation Law

Maritime Law

Education

- Lakehead University, Faculty of Law, JD
 - Concordia University, BA
-

Bar Admission

- Ontario, 2023

Executive Summary

A former Royal Canadian Navy navigation officer, Noah is part of Gardiner Roberts' growing transportation department. The recipient of two command commendations, Noah's military career culminated with his deployment on an international counter-narcotic mission during which he received the Canadian operational Service Medal.

Specializing in Trucking, Boating, Logistics and Insurance law, Noah is proud to be able to bring both his legal aptitudes and past military experience to the table when responding to any issue that might need solving.

In his spare time, Noah continues to give back to the maritime community by serving on the board of directors of the Mission to Seafarers of Southern Ontario, an international charity dedicated to promoting the interests and well-being of sailors.

Articles and Presentations

- Who's liable when AI chatbot tells customer to phone a scammer? Law360 Canada – July 30, 2024
- Providing medical evidence is not always required when terminating insurance benefits, Mondaq – February 16, 2023
- A Canoe is a Small Vessel Under the Criminal Code, The Navigator, Fernandes Hearn LLP – July 23, 2022

Board Memberships

- Board of Directors – Mission to Seafarers of Southern Ontario