Executive Summary

Rob Winterstein is a partner and member of the Dispute Resolution group at Gardiner Roberts LLP. Prior to joining Gardiner Roberts, Rob articulated and practised for several years with a large firm in Calgary, Alberta, and now conducts a general commercial litigation practise with an emphasis on professional liability and corporate litigation. Among other clients, Rob acts for one of the largest residential property management companies in Canada and provides advice on all facets of their business operations. Rob has appeared numerous times before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, the Divisional Court, the Ontario Court of Appeal, the Ontario Court of Justice, Provincial Division as well as the (Ontario) Landlord and Tenant Board and the (Ontario) Human Rights Tribunal.

Rob also has significant experience defending clients charged with regulatory offences as well as prosecuting regulatory offences for the largest conservation authority in Ontario.

As part of his practice, Rob also assists a wide variety of health sector clients, including longterm care homes, retirement homes and health professionals with litigation and regulatory compliance issues.
