Executive summary

Kirsten is excited to return to Gardiner Roberts LLP as an Articling Student after completing the Dual J.D. Program at the University of Windsor Faculty of Law and the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law. During law school, Kirsten developed a strong interest in litigation through her participation in moot competitions on both sides of the border. She was also selected to represent Windsor Law at the National Tort Law Moot, where she further honed her advocacy and legal research skills. Kirsten was the recipient of the Garan Lucow Miller, P.C. Endowed Scholarship, awarded to a student who demonstrates a strong interest in pursuing a career in civil litigation. She also received the Aline Felton-Berkley Endowed Scholarship, awarded through a competitive selection process based on academic achievement, extracurricular involvement, and legal writing ability.

Kirsten graduated at the top of her class and earned membership in the prestigious Justice Frank Murphy Honor Society, recognizing her academic achievement and contributions to the law school community. As an Articling Student, she looks forward to learning from experienced lawyers across the firm and gaining exposure to a diverse range of practice areas.
