Executive summary

Laura is a Real Estate Law Clerk at Gardiner Roberts, where she assists with all aspects of commercial real estate matters. She has experience supporting multi-property and multi-jurisdictional transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions, and financings.

Laura's work includes conducting title and off-title due diligence searches, preparing detailed title memorandums and summary reports, drafting conveyancing and security documents, negotiating title insurance policies, and managing electronic registrations. She regularly liaises with clients, lawyers, and municipal offices, and supports transactions through to closing with careful attention to detail.

Laura has been involved in large portfolio acquisitions of multi-residential buildings and retirement homes, and has experience with acquisitions of vacant land, office, industrial, and retail properties.
