Executive summary

Simona is an Associate in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group at Gardiner Roberts, where she maintains a broad commercial and civil litigation practice with a focus on professional liability defence.

Simona has developed particular expertise in defending lawyers and real estate professionals against professional negligence claims. Her practice involves navigating complex liability issues, delivering strategic risk management advice, and advocating for her clients with precision and discretion to protect both their professional reputations and their business interests.

In addition to professional liability litigation, Simona regularly advises and represents clients across a wide range of commercial and civil litigation matters, including disputes involving real estate, banking, and business litigation. She is recognized for her practical, efficient, and results-driven approach, providing strategic counsel tailored to each client's unique objectives and circumstances.
